Iverson Joins Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis (FHLBI) is pleased to announce that Douglas J. Iverson has joined the FHLBI as Vice President, Mortgage Purchase Manager. Mr. Iverson brings 32 years of banking, business and investment experience to FHLBI.

Iverson began his career in banking with Ottawa Savings/AmeriBank after graduating from Hope College in 1972 with a BA in economics and management. He went on to earn his MBA from Western Michigan University in 1972.

Doug Iverson held a number of positions with the Ottawa Savings/AmeriBank including, Banking Center Manager, Mortgage Department Manager, and Chief Administrative Officer. In 1996 he was named Chief Executive Officer, a position he held through 2000. At the time of the merger, AmeriBank had $1.1 billion in assets with 26 offices in 6 counties in Michigan.

In December 2000, AmeriBank merged with Fifth Third Bank, and Doug assumed the position of Affiliate Mortgage Manager for the Chicago affiliate. Today, Fifth Third Bank has over $98 billion in assets, operating in 9 states and is in the top 15 bank holding companies in the country. Mortgage originations bank wide totaled approximately $8.5 billion in 2004.

Outside his responsibilities for the bank, Doug was actively involved in the community where he worked and resided. He was a volunteer for many non-profit organizations including, Rotary, Resthaven Patrons, NHS of Chicago, Holland Community Hospital, and the Exchange Club. He also served on the Christ Memorial Church consistory. Further, he served on the boards of many organizations including, Michigan League of Community Banks, Holland Board of Public Works, Holland Christian Schools, Holland Chamber of Commerce, Holland Zeeland Community Foundation, and the Holland Boys and Girls Club. He was a member of the adjunct faculty of Hope College where he taught for 20 years.

FHLBI welcomes Doug and his family to Indianapolis, Indiana. Its staff looks forward to working with Doug and continuing to deliver the highest level of customer service to its clients and members.
