The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis is one of 12 regional banks that make up the Federal Home Loan Bank System. FHLBanks are government-sponsored enterprises created by Congress to ensure access to low-cost funding for insured financial institutions, such as commercial banks, savings institutions, credit unions, and insurance companies. FHLBanks are privately capitalized and funded, and receive no Congressional appropriations.

The FHLBI promotes Building Partnerships, Serving Communities by serving as a wholesale source of funds for chartered financial institutions throughout Indiana and Michigan. For more information about the FHLBI, visit www.fhlbi.com.
