FHLBI announces early closing of MPP trading hours, advances window in observance of Presidents' Day

Due to the early closing of the bond market in observance of Presidents' Day, MPP trading hours will close at 1:00 pm Indianapolis time on Friday, February 13, 2009. Scheduled fundings will still be completed on Friday, and MPP staff will be available during normal business hours.

The FHLBI advances window will close at 12:00 p.m. Indianapolis time. No trades will be executed after that time except for our variable rate advance product. We will honor requests for our variable rate advance until 2:00 p.m. Indianapolis time.

As a reminder, the FHLBI will be closed on Monday, February 16, 2009, in observance of Presidents' Day.

Building Partnerships, Serving Communities

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis (FHLBI) is one of 12 regional banks that make up the Federal Home Loan Bank System. FHLBanks are government-sponsored enterprises created by Congress to ensure access to low-cost funding for their member financial institutions. FHLBanks are privately capitalized and funded, and receive no Congressional appropriations. The FHLBI is owned by its financial institution members, which include commercial banks, credit unions, insurance companies, and savings banks headquartered in Indiana and Michigan.
