Reminder: FHLBank Indianapolis Seeks Nominations for Affordable Housing Advisory Council

Bulletin No. 1807

July 19, 2018

As a reminder, Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis (FHLBank Indianapolis) is still accepting nominations for vacancies on its Affordable Housing Advisory Council. Interested parties should complete a nomination form.

We must receive your nominations by September 30, 2018.

About the Advisory Council

The 12 members of the Advisory Council meet quarterly to confer with representatives of the FHLBank Indianapolis Board of Directors on executing the bank's housing finance and community investment strategies in Indiana and Michigan. Members provide recommendations on matters such as low- and moderate-income housing, community investment programs in the bank's district, and the use of Affordable Housing Program (AHP) subsidies, FHLBank Indianapolis advances, and other credit products.

Members receive a stipend for each quarterly meeting they attend and are reimbursed for travel, lodging, and meal expenses. Meetings may require overnight travel but are typically one day in length. On occasion, additional committee meetings may be required.

Advisory Council members serve three-year terms, with a maximum of two consecutive terms.

Nomination Criteria

FHLBank Indianapolis seeks nominees from a diverse range of community and nonprofit organizations actively involved in providing or promoting low- and moderate-income housing or community lending in Michigan and Indiana. Nominees must reside in the state they seek to represent on the Council.
