Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis announces 2026 Board of Directors election results

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis ("FHLBank Indianapolis" or "Bank") this week announced the results of the election of one Indiana Member Director, one Michigan Member Director, and one Independent Director to its Board of Directors ("Board"). The following individuals were elected to the Board and will each serve four-year terms beginning Jan. 1, 2027.

The Indiana Member Director is:

- Ryan Warner, chairman of the board of directors of The Bippus State Bank, Huntington, Ind. Warner earned an associate degree in accounting from the International Business College in Fort Wayne, Ind. He holds a Certificate of Banking from the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin - Madison.

The Michigan Member Director is:

- William Hufnagel, president and CEO of The Dart Bank in Mason, Mich. Hufnagel earned a bachelor's degree in business from Spring Arbor College in Spring Arbor, Mich. and is a graduate of the ABA Stonier Graduate School of Banking at the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

The Independent Director is:

- Kathryn Dominguez, Marina von Neumann Whitman Distinguished University Professor of Public Policy and professor of economics at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Dominguez earned a Bachelor of Arts in economics at Vassar College in New York and a Ph.D in economics from Yale University in Connecticut. Dominguez has experience in the areas of financial management, derivatives, and risk management practices.

Annually, the Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency determines the size of the Board and designates at least a majority, but no more than 60%, of the directorships as member directorships and the remainder as independent directorships. Independent Directors are nominated by the Board after consultation with the Bank's Affordable Housing Advisory Council and the Federal Housing Finance Agency.
