Income per AUS

* When a limited cash-out refinance transaction is used, the borrower must have held legal title to the lot before he or she receives the first advance of interim construction financing. The borrower is using the proceeds from the construction financing to pay off any existing liens on the lot and finance the construction of the properties.

Reserve requirements when loan includes multiple financed properties and manually underwritten loans.

Limitations and Restrictions

In addition to the underwriting guidelines provided in Section 6 of the MPP Guide, the following limitations and restrictions are highlighted:

Limitations Applicable to all Matrices
Cash-Out Refinance – If the property was purchased within the prior six months; the borrower is ineligible for a cash out transaction unless the loan meets the delayed financing exception.
Construction-to-permanent – These transactions are subject to applicable eligibility requirements based on the loan purpose. Single-closing transactions are processed as purchases or limited cash-out refinances and two-closing transactions are processed as limited cash-out or cash-out refinances.
Debts paid by others – Co-signed debts and debts paid by a business can be excluded if properly documented per industry standards.
Escrow Holdback – Permitted only for grade and seed and/or weather related for new construction.
Life Estates – Life Estates are not allowed with the exception of Enhanced Life Estates in the state of Michigan (Lady Bird Deed) with a qualified title policy.
Minimum cash investment – Second home, 2-4-unit and manually underwritten loans require 5% of the borrower's own verified funds.
Multiple financed properties – Borrowers of second homes with additional financed properties are subject to additional reserves requirements.
Property for Sale - Properties that have been listed for sale must be taken off the market prior to application of the new mortgage loan.
Second Homes – Limited to one-unit single family dwelling or condominium in a project only.
